

COUNSELOR & ADVISOR WORKSHOP

Wednesday, September 2, 2020

Small Group Discussion Topics - 11:00 AM

FIRST YEAR APPLICATION UPDATES

The application process differs from institution to institution, especially for the 2021-2022 academic year. Join Misti Reese, Director of Admissions Operations, as we walk you through changes and updates to the Common App, Test Waiver policy, Minimum Admission Requirements, and deadlines to better inform your students as they begin the application process.

Who should attend: First Year Counselors

COLLEGE CREDIT

The Online & Transfer Services (OTS) credit articulation team oversees the evaluation of all transfer credit (including credit from other institutions, military, AP, IB, CLEP, Cambridge, international, and more). Nate Weigl, Associate Director for OTS explains how we provide information to prospective students on how their credits may transfer and ensure the smooth transfer of credit for admits.

Who should attend: First Year, Early College & Transfer counselors

GEAR UP GUARANTEE

This program is a collaboration between the university and the region's Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs (GEAR UP) school districts. Learn more from Corinne Smith and Elyssee Gibson from College Access Partnerships on how students can take advantage of this opportunity for guaranteed admission and discover their place at Appalachian State!

Who should attend: The 11 GEAR UP school districts in these counties: Ashe, Alleghany, Burke, Clay, Graham, Madison, Rutherford, Swain, Watauga, Wilkes, Yancey.

SLATE.ORG

We seek to provide you the most relevant and updated information regarding your students and their application progress throughout the year. This session by Sarah-Davis Cagle, Director for CRM, Enrollment Management Analytics, will inform you the benefits of Slate.org and how to navigate this amazing resource to better stay connected with your students and their progress with App State!

Who should attend: First Year Counselors

TRANSFER PATHWAYS

Appalachian State University is dedicated to ensuring our students' transfer pathways are as smooth and easy to follow as possible. During this session with Beth Watts, Associate Director for Online & Transfer Advising will review agreements and tools designed to help students and their counselors navigate this process. We will touch on Transfer Guides (Baccalaureate Degree Plans/BDPs), articulation agreements, Aspire Appalachian, pre-transfer advising opportunities, and more!

Who should attend: Transfer & Early College counselors